Health and long-term services and supports systems are changing quickly, as are the roles of community-based organizations in those systems. Hear from the Administration on Community Living (ACL) and the Centers for Medicare & Medicaid Services (CMS) about new efforts to integrate care for people with Medicare and Medicaid, and how aging and disability organizations can participate. This web seminar highlights the trends, opportunities and challenges facing community-based organizations as we work to help older adults and people with disabilities live successfully at home and in the community. Presenters were Firstname Lastname and Firstname Lastname.
